INTRODUCTION

TAKANASHI KIARA

小鳥遊キアラ

@takanashikiara

Kiara, of hololive English -Myth-, has charmed her fans with her enthusiastic, friendly, and caring personality. She is a phoenix (not a chicken – very important!), an idol, a part-time warrior, and owner of a fast food franchise named Kiara Fried Phoenix (KFP).

KFP is also the name of her fanbase!

She loves JRPGs and adventure games and has spent countless hours sharing them with her viewers, while throwing in many a tangent.

IRyS
アイリス

@irys-en

IRyS is a VSinger from hololive English's "Project: HOPE". She is a half-angel, half-demon being known as a nephilim.

IRyS is a sweet (and sometimes shy) girl who, at unexpected times, can say questionable things without hesitation. This duality has charmed her fandom, the IRyStocrats. She loves singing streams, as well as a variety of games, such as Resident Evil (Biohazard) or Minecraft.

hololive EN bietet ausschließlich englischsprachige Unterhaltung, daher ist der Rest dieses Flyers auf Englisch verfasst. Eine deutschsprachige Fassung findet Ihr unter vivalakiara.com/dokomi/flyer-de. Mehr Informationen im DoKomi Programmheft auf Seite 50f.

IRYS FANBOOK

Oiwai SasshiRyS

As a thanks for all she's done for us, the IRyStocrats decided to make a book of messages and art for IRyS's birthday, with both a digital and physical copy being sent to her. Why a book? It allows many fans to participate while keeping the messages in one condensed spot, and also looking pretty in the process!

In the book is a collection of over 180 messages from IRyStocrats around the globe as well as art of all types, including drawings, poetry, and even a 3D printed GWS pill! All made to showcase how much we appreciate our adorable nephilim and the wonderful moments she's given us since descending!
